

Selected articles from the Lion Magazine July/August.

July/August 1956-West Unity, participated in a pancake supper that fed about 650 persons and grossed approximately $600. The sum will be used to help light the baseball diamond.

July/August 1956-Fayette, sold $625 worth of blind-made brooms. The club's profit of about $200 will be used for blind research, glasses for needy children and similar programs.

July/August 1976-Deshler, Lions gave $100 to the Lions International Foundation, and $120 to Ohio Eye Research.

July/August 2016– The Toledo Lions Club in Ohio meets. Meetings have remained an essential aspect of club life over the past century, helping Lions stay connected to one another and to the broader association.

Editors Note: The first July/August double edition was issued in 1954. and was published constantly as a double issue from 1956 to present. The only exception was the July 1961 issue dedicated to our founder Melvin Jones who passed away June 1, 1961.