Mrs. John Thomas, 1619 Woodworth Rd., Apt. 1, Cleveland 12, Ohio writes: "I would recommend Remmel Concentrate to anyone who is overweight. I have lost 15 lbs. with Remmel, and have more pep and vitality. I was also troubled with pains in my legs, but not any more, thanks to Remmel. Thousands have overcome the social and physical discomfort of being overweight with this effective home recipe. Obtain liquid Remmel at your drug store, plus with grapefruit juice as directed and take two tablespoons twice a day. That's all there is to it. It reduces pounds and inches of excess fat don't seem to disappear almost like magic with the very first bottle, just return it to the manufacturer for your money back. You need never know a hungry moment reducing with Remmel."

Presentation Of 'The King And I' Marks Final Program Of FC Convocation Series

THE sparkling tunes of Richard Rodgers and Oscar Hammerstein were brought to life yesterday morning in a Findlay college convocation presentation of "The King and I" portrayed by Mrs. James L. Child, Mrs. William O'Brien and Allen Dudley. The presentation, the last of the year's college convocations, was based on the novel "Anna and the King of Siam" by Anna Leonowens and is a miniature of the Broadway hit of the same name starring Gertrude Lawrence and Yul Brynner. The audience was impressed with the continuity and showmanship displayed throughout by the three talented performers. An enthusiastic ovation greeted the completion of the show which is currently regarded as one of Broadway's best selling performances.

I OWN STOCK ...AND I'M NO FINANCIAL GENIUS

"Just because the shares I own happen to have been good to me doesn't mean I'm a wizard, or a millionaire. Far from it. "I know there's a risk in owning any stock, just as there is in owning a drug store or a drive-in theater. So my name is John Q. Cautious when it comes to buying shares. No sales talk, or hot tips or 'inside dope' for me. "But every dollar I do invest goes into shares of companies listed on the New York Stock Exchange. I know that some of these companies have paid dividends since before I was born. "And I know that shares in listed companies are easy to buy, easy to sell." Yes, most investors—big or small—know the advantages of owning shares in companies listed on the Exchange. The prices at which people buy and sell shares listed on the New York Stock Exchange are published promptly for all to see. And listed companies must agree with the Exchange to report regularly on their operations to their share owners. There's a wealth of information about listed companies available at offices of member firms of the Exchange. This information is yours without charge or obligation—any time you want it.
