Bluffton Gets Big Legal Job For $2,000

BLUFFTON — Bluffton has received a bill for $2,000 for the legal assistance of City Solicitor John Roney in connection with the completion of the new $580,000 sewerage system here.

Roney's charge for services above his $150 yearly retainer salary covered more than two years of work embracing ordinances, preparation of easements, title searches and the cost of clerical assistance.

The complicated easement and damage suit cases involving the Myron Motter farm, also were involved in the billing.

Ada Studying Light Improvement Plan

ADA—More candlepower for the Main St. "white way" is being studied here with Councilmen W. C. Arbogast and Robert Bischoff making detailed inquiries as to cost and contingencies.

A survey of the town's needs for increased candlepower and better lighting at points other than on Main St. has been presented to Council by Ohio Power Co.

Under the proposed plan, the town would receive more efficient lighting besides more light per dollar value. Work on the cangeover project would be started next spring if Council finds the plan feasible.
